Instructions for conduct of Online Examination

Dear Students!!

You are aware that we are going through unprecedented times. The COVID 19 pandemic has necessitated new approaches to everything we do. In case of teaching – learning processes a lot has changed across the globe over the last 3 to 4 months. We are no exceptions. However, we at the department of economics have always tried to develop innovative ways of minimizing the academic loss of our students.

To this end while, online classwork has been initiated, a mechanism has also been devised to conduct a continuous assessment of the progress made by you in these classes. To start with we will be conducting a minor exam which will constitute what used to be the Internal assessment component of the scheme of examination in the pre – COVID academic sessions.

It is with regard to this examination that you are required to go through the following guidelines regarding the pattern and conduct of the proposed examination.

Pattern

The first minor examination will be of 20 marks from unit one in each course. The question papers will comprise of four short answer type questions of 05 marks each to be answered in about 100-120 words.

Conduct

Students will be served a question paper for each course by the concerned teacher through an appropriate platform . Each student is required to submit a neatly hand written answer script(two A4 size pages) within one hour of the receipt of the question paper, beyond which no receipt of the answer script will be entertained. Answer scripts will have to be submitted (as scanned or photo copies) through email to teacher concerned (email ID given below) with a copy to Head of the department at hodeconomics@kashmiruniversity.ac.in. Time of serving question paper and their receipt will be monitored by Assistant Superintendent Examination (Mr. Arshid Mir for semester 2nd and Ms. Saba Azad for semester 3rd), the teacher concerned and by the Head of the Department.
