9B	List of courses addressing Local Needs: 2019
	Course Code	Course Title	Brief Justification
	ECO 22207DCE	Agricultural Economics	Starting with the explanation of theoretical questions, the course intends to enhance the awareness of issues that are relevant to agriculture economics and contemporary debates in the literature in order to enable the analyses of these issues with basic microeconomics concepts. It also attempts to put J&K agriculture in proper perspective in light with established theories and models related to the subject
	ECO 22305DCE	Economics of Conflict, Peace and Development	To date, the study of conflicts has been dominated by political scientists, which prejudices the phenomenon as purely political. However, the use of economic theory and statistical evidence alongside the traditional case-studies can offer valuable analytical insights on the causes of inter- and intrastate conflicts and its effect on economic development. Students are introduced to models of conflict also.
	ECO 22306DCE	J & K Economy	The course introduces the dynamic & challenging issues of Jammu & Kashmir at the disaggregated level. The emphasis of the course is on the overall socioeconomic environment influencing policy decisions in contemporary settings of Jammu & Kashmir.
	ECO 22407DCE	Economics of Tourism	In this paper we focus on the definitions, concepts and frameworks that underpin the study of tourism to provide a basic understanding of how tourism is defined; ii) a comprehension of the issues associated with the academic and practical study of tourism as a concept and knowledge and understanding of accommodation & attraction structure strategies in terms of quality.
	ECO 22408 DCE	Project Work	Project Work shall be Discipline Centric (DSC) to be carried out under the supervision of concerned teacher of the department. The project work shall be submitted in the form of a typed dissertation limited to a maximum of 100 pages. Project work specifically is directed with a focus on local research needs of the economy.
